Hangouts: bathory@gmail.com Los Angeles

I am a senior front-end UI developer with a background in graphic design. Working exclusively as an remote team member, I excel at ultra fast PSD-to-Code conversions, cross platform compliance and Wordpress theme development. I am passionate about simplicity, user experience and efficient coding. I have a special interest in user experience, sites that help improve communities, and small dogs. I'm highly personable and excellent at managing client expectations. It's easy to get in touch with me via telephone, Hangouts or email.
