Skype: codebloo Los Angeles, 90068

I am a senior front-end developer with a background in graphic design. Working primarily as an offsite consultant I excel at ultra fast PSD-to-Code conversions, cross platform compliance and Wordpress development.

I am passionate about web standards, user experience and efficient coding. I am fascinated by business development using the web, I'm highly personable and excellent at managing client expectations. It's easy to get in touch with me via telephone, Skype or email.
